MAY UPDATES and FEATURES

Tuesday, 01 May 2018

Dear Colleagues, Friends and Supporters of OIRF,

➡ This past weekend we completed another great "boot camp" workshop with Dr. Simon Yu (medical), Dr. Gary Wiele (dental), Gordon Johnston (Kindling) and myself (Carolyn Winsor for OIRF). This great workshop is always very well received and attended, and it's a pleasure for me to present a lecture or two, assist with the hands-on training and hear the great lectures. Everyone is able to leave the workshop with a good manual point measurement technique which will still need some practice and repetition but will quickly lead to reliable use in practice.

During this workshop I was thrilled to once again be able to offer the MORA Super Plus to the participants. This is the device that Dr. Yu uses in practice for all his patient testing measurements, and which he talks about during all of his many international lectures.

After some five years of work and correspondence, the MORA Super device was registered with Health Canada in June 2010. An amazing accomplishment which had us "dancing in the aisles" so to speak. Then, to our great disappointment, in November of that same year, Med-Tronik discontinued any sales of that device outside of China. The newer MORA Nova (computerized model) was introduced to replace it. Definitely frustrating for us. Even though we were unable to convince Med-Tronik to continue allowing sales for USA/Canada, we have maintained our registration throughout the intervening eight years.

Today, I am very pleased to re-introduce the MORA Super Plus for USA/Canada practitioners. The device is now listed on our OIRF Website with full information and lots of links to related articles and information. The only real difference is that the old BNC connectors have now been replaced with modern ODU connectors which meet the current standards for ISO and CE certifications.

And the greatest surprise of all – we are able to bring the device back to you at 2010 prices! Really!

Following – again – is basic information regarding the MORA Super Plus. This is the classical BioResonance device as designed by Dr. Franz Morell and the engineer Erich Rasche. This is not a copy or a knock-off made by a splinter or so called competitive company, but rather is the original design from the original manufacturer and developers. Initially designed and produced in 1991, many of those first digitalized devices (including my own) are still in everyday practice around the world. They are the preferred MORA model for many of our advisors including Dr. Simon Yu (USA) and Marguerite Lane (Australia).

Because this device remained in production exclusively for the Chinese market after it was internationally discontinued, devices are immediately available for delivery. As for all Med-Tronik devices there is a service and technical department with fully trained technicians available for any challenges that do appear (usually only batteries) with very short turn around.

We still have numerous video taped seminars and workshops available from OIRF specifically for this device and training seminars are being planned that will apply directly to this model. Please watch your newsletters and updates from OIRF for more information and details.

Carolyn's Comments: In recent years we have watched some of our top rank Naturopaths going back to the books to prepare for the dreaded "prescribing exam". Personally I wonder about why our NDs are being trained and examined to prescribe (allopathic) medications when as Naturopaths they would normally "prescribe" homeopathics, supplements, herbs, etc. On the other side of the coin we are seeing our homeopathics and natural remedies being taken off the market by Health Canada and the US FDA. Where can we now turn for remedies for our patients? Note that Sanum, Heel and other North American "discontinued" remedy companies are definitely licensed and included in the software above . . .

And an added note for all upcoming participants of Dr. Simon Yu's AMA "boot camp workshop", the MORA Super Plus is the device used by Dr. Yu for all of his diagnostic testing. It is the printout charts from this diagnostic software which Dr. Yu shows in all of his many (international) lectures and presentations. CLW
